

it is simply a bill that I think is going to help the department defray some costs that they may have, and hopefully keep their budget low at least, in fact having certain cash funds to defray certain expenses. With that I would simply ask that you advance the bill today. To ease Senator Wesely's mind I certainly will take a second look at that particular area and get an answer for him later.

SPEAKER NICHOL: With that you've heard the closing on the advancement of LB 460. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 1 nay on the motion to advance 460, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The bill advances. Let's get prepared for Final Reading. Please take your seats and we'll begin Final Reading. (Gavel.) Ladies and gentlemen, please take your seats and we'll begin Final Reading. Let's get going, come on. (Gavel.) Please take your seats so we can begin Final Reading. Thank you. Begin, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator DeCamp would first of all move to return 389 to Select File for a specific amendment, that amendment being to strike the enacting clause.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: I'm not serious, I have to read something into the record. Members of the Legislature, I want to simply add some very important legislative history to LB 389E before it is passed today. In Section 5, subsection 5, page 6 the language stating who can write compilation financial statements under LB 389E to be filed with the Public Service Commission is not clear. When LB 389E was drafted and examined by the concerned parties including the Public Service Commission the proper language allowing independent nonlicensed accountants in Nebraska to write these compilation financial statements was not clearly defined. It is my understanding that it was the intent of the Public Service Commission and other parties that assisted in drafting LB 389E to allow both independent nonlicensed accountants, independent certified public accountants and independent public accountants to write the required compilation financial statements. Independent nonlicensed accountants have been writing compilation
